SUMMARY

I'm a young, dedicated, and hardworking person who always gives my best to reach any goal. I have little experience, but I'm looking for a job where I can learn and give everything I've got. Likewise, I work well under pressure and stay organized with my tasks, keeping clear and effective communication with my coworkers. I enjoy working in a team. I always try to improve my problem-solving skills and I adapt easily to new situations. I'm also punctual, responsible, and keep a positive attitude at all times, no matter the circumstances.
